INVENTORIES OF THE GOODS AND ORNAMENTS OF THE CHURCHES IN THE COUNTY OF SURREY IN THE REIGN OF KING EDWARD THE SIXTH.

Communicated by

JOHN ROBERT DANIEL-TYSEN, Esq., F.S.A.

THE Seventh Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, dated the 30th of March, 1846, in the Appendix II. No. 10, will be found peculiarly to claim the attention of the antiquary. It is headed:—

A CATALOGUE, topographically arranged, of the INVENTORIES of the GOODS and ORNAMENTS in the several CHURCHES and CHAPELS of the REALM, as they were found by the various bodies of Commissioners appointed to make inquiry concerning them, in the sixth year of King Edward the Sixth:—and also of the INDENTURES of the DELIVERY of such Goods and Ornaments as were allowed to remain in the hands of the Churchwardens for the use of the several Churches:—and, in respect of some of the Parishes, of other Documents connected with the proceedings of the Commissioners.

Blue books or public reports and commissions being rather voluminous and tedious to wade through, and not forming a portion of every one's library, I have thought it desirable to put my readers in possession of the authority under which the Commissioners acted for carrying into effect the directions of the Crown relating to the Inventories of Church Goods. I have therefore given in full from the Seventh Report copies of two of the commissions found upon the Patent Rolls (together with an extract from one of the originals remaining in the Exchequer). These instruments will show the objects and powers of the Commissioners, and thus serve as a guide to the kind of information which is to be expected from the Inventories.

There had been previous commissions of inquiry of the like nature, in the second year of the reign, and there are intermixed with the documents that arose in executing the commissions of the sixth year, such documents as have been discovered among the Exchequer Records, which arose in the proceedings of the former commissions. But these are very few, compared with those of the later commissions.

The commissions for the seizure of church goods upon which the greater portion of the returns here published were taken, do not appear to exist; but the entries on the Patent Roll containing the commission for the County of Bedford and City of London will show the wording of the documents, mutatis mutandis. They are as follows:¹—

EDWARD the syxt &c. To our deare Cousyn and Counsaillour William Marques of Northampton Great Chamberleyn of Englund and to our trustie and right welbeloved John Lord Braye and to our trustie and welbeloved John SeyntJohn and Uryan Brereton Knyghts and to our welbeloved Lewes Dyve and Richard Snowe Esquyers greting Whereas We have at sondry tymes heretofore by our speciall Commyssion and otherwyse commaunded that ther shuld be takyn and made a just veu surveye and inventory of all manner goodes plate juells vestyments bells and other ornaments within every paryshe belongyng or in any wyse apperteynyng to any Churche Chapell Brothered Gylde or Fraternyty within this our Realme of Englund and uppon the same Inventory so taken had or made our commaundement was and hathe ben that all the same goodes plate juells vestments bells and other ornaments shuld be safely kept and appoynted to the charge of such persons as shuld kepe the same safely and be ready to aunswere to the same at all tymes according to the whiche our Commyssyons and sundry Commaundements We were advertysed by our said Commyssioners then appoynted and by other meanes also that the said goodes plate juells vestyments belles and other ornaments of the said Churches Chapells Brotherhedds Gylde Fraternytyes and Companyes were not only viewed and duly surveyed but also that the Inventories therof were made by Indenture and thon part of the same remayned with our Custos Rotulorum of that Countye or hys Deputye or Clerke of the peax at that tyme being and the other part with the Churchwardens and suche men

These documents so fully show the nature and object of the commissions, that further remark on the subject is unnecessary.

It is not our intention to occupy more of the valuable space in this volume than we can possibly help, and for that reason we must refrain from going into a lengthy dissertation upon the nature of the circumstances and causes which gave rise to the commission¹ which has furnished us with these documents; to point out their great value and peculiar interest would be a work of supererogation.

A few words on the nature of these "church goods and ornaments" may not, however, be considered out of place. By the constitution of Simon, Archbishop of ¹ See Fuller's Church History, bk. xii. p. 11, quoted by Edward James Edwards in his Church Goods of Staffordshire, in the Diocese of Lichfield, Oct. 1863.

Canterbury (1368), among other things, it was directed that the ordinary should see that each parish had in its church, and kept in proper repair, the following necessities :—

Legend.	Thurible.
Antiphoner.	Lantern.
Gradale.	Bell to carry before the Eucharist at the visitation of the sick.
Two psalters.	Pix for the Eucharist.
Troper.	Chrismatory.
Ordinal.	Veil for Lent.
Missal.	Banner for Rogation days.
Manual.	Handbell, and bells in belfry, with cords to the same.
Chalice.	Bier for the dead.
Principal vestment, with chasuble, dalmatic, tunic, cope for choir, with their appendages.	Holy-water stoup.
Frontal to the great altar, with three towels.	Osculatory.
Three surplices.	Candlestick for the paschal light.
One rochet.	Font with lock.
Processional cross.	Images in church.
Cross for funerals.	Principal images in chancel. ¹

This list will account for the great variety and number of the ornaments and furniture which were necessary for the service of the church, and may reasonably be taken to show, by comparison with the returns here printed, the deficiencies of many of the parishes.

With a few remarks upon the originals from which our text is taken, we shall lay before the Society our contribution to their volume.²

The orthography of the original has been preserved as strictly as possible.

The returns will be found for all the parishes in Surrey, except Hanscombe, Wisley, and Kew; Frimsley and Bagshot being portions of the parishes of Ash and Windlesham.

Names of the Commissioners for Surrey :—

The Marquis Northampton.¹
 Lord William Howard.²
 Sir William Cecyll, Secretary.³
 Sir Thomas Carden.⁴

Sir Thomas Saunder.⁵
 John Scott.⁶
 Nicholas Leghe.⁷
 Henry Polsted.⁸

The first series of returns occur in a volume preserved at the Public Record Office, entitled, "Church Goods Com. Surr. Temp. Edw. VI.," which was bound many years since by the late Mr. Caley, and is numbered 511.

¹ William Parr, Marquis of Northampton, elected a knight of the Garter in 1543; he was attainted in 1553, and restored in 1559, and re-elected into the order in 1559. He died Oct. 28, 1571, at Warwick, and was buried at St. Mary's Church there.

² Lord William Howard, eldest son of Thomas, second Duke of Norfolk, by Agnes, his second duchess, was much trusted by Henry VIII. and Edward VI., and employed in various foreign missions; among others to the Czar of Muscovy in 1553 (the first embassy from England to Russia). On March 11th, 1554, he was created Baron Howard of Effingham by Queen Mary, and on March 20th in the same year, appointed Lord High Admiral. He was also made a knight of the Garter, and held the offices of Lord Chamberlain of the Household and Lord Privy Seal during the reign of Elizabeth. He died at Hampton Court, Jan. 12, 1572, and was buried at Reigate. His son, Lord Charles Howard, was the celebrated Lord Howard who defeated the Spanish Armada.

⁴ Sir Thomas Carden or Cawerden, of Blechingley, was a man of considerable importance. He stood high in favour with Henry VIII., Edward VI., and Elizabeth, and during his career held many important offices. Among others he was Gentleman of the Privy Chamber to Henry VIII., Master of the Revels, and Keeper of the King's tents. He was at the siege of Boulogne, where he was knighted. He was Keeper of the Parks and Palace of Norwich, and Sheriff of the county in 1547. He died August 25th, 1559, and was buried at Blechingley. By his will he appointed his wife Elizabeth and William More, Esq., of Loseley (afterwards Sir William More), his executors. From this connection with the More family, no doubt the MSS. here published, and many other papers which exist at Loseley, came into the possession of Sir William More, and have happily been preserved. An account of Sir Thos. Cawerden and many of the papers relating to him will be found in Kemp's Loseley MSS.

⁵ The son of Nicholas Saunder, of Charlwood—was knighted in the 4th of Edw. VI. He was M.P. for Gatton in the 33rd of Henry VIII.; Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer and Sheriff of Surrey in 1553. He married Alice, daughter of Sir Edward Walsingham, of the county of Kent, knight, Lieutenant of the Tower of London; and from him descended the family of Saunder, of Charlwood, county Surrey. Pedigree in Coll. Arm. 2 D. 14. 152, and Vincent's Surrey, p. 419.

⁶ Of Camberwell; was Sheriff of Surrey in 1548.

⁷ Son of John Leigh, of Addington, by Isabella, daughter of John Hervey, and sister of Sir George Hervey, kt. See his pedigree in Berry, p. 102.

OBSERVATIONS ON THE EDWARDIAN INVENTORIES OF CHURCH GOODS.

Communicated by

W. H. HART, Esq., F.S.A.

BY the kindness of my friend Stuart A. Moore, Esq., who is engaged in the task of arranging and cataloguing the Records of the city of Exeter, I am enabled to lay before the Society a document, which, though not relating to the county of Surrey, is yet of considerable interest as an illustration of the method followed by the Commissioners in taking the Inventories of Church Goods in the reign of Edward VI. It is entitled, "Instruccions geven by the kynges maiestie to the Commyssioners before appoynted for the survey of the churche goods within hys Citie of Exeter the xth of June the vjth yere of his rayne."

For our own county we have only the bare commissions from the king without any instructions; but there is every reason to believe that the Commissioners in each county received instructions similar, or very nearly so, to those pursued in the Exeter inquiries; and had all the documents of the Surrey Commissioners been preserved, we should doubtless have been enabled to investigate their proceedings more minutely, and to have added a little chapter to the history of the county which now we are obliged to omit. However, it is no use now to bewail the loss of documents which ought to be in existence; we must be satisfied with what we have; and I will therefore introduce the Exeter instructions at once to the notice of the Society.

Furste appon the recepte of the comysshion by any of the commysioners he that shall fyrste receive the comysshion shall furthwith wyth all convenyent spede geve knowlege to the rest named in the same comysshion and with them shall agree to mete and assymble with that spede they can for thexecucion of the said comysshion and these instruccions. And yf any of the said comysshioners shalbe deade sycke or otherwyse shalbe absent owte of the countie for the service of the king that he cannot with spede attende the same in that case the reste of the said comysshioners so that they be to the number appoynted by the comysshion shall not make any delay ffrome the procedyng in the same comysshion but shall furthewith allote there syttynges and metyngs for the same comysshion as in lyke case hath ben or shalbe mette to be used.

Item for ther better and more certen procydyng the said commysioners shall in suche cases where none of the comysshioners be Custos Rotulorum of that countie ne hath not ben sens the begynnyng of oure rayne comande the said Custos Rotulorum or the deputie or the clarke of the peax of these partyes to bryng or send unto tham suche bokes registers and invytories as hath heretofore [sic] any wyse come to ther handes by indenture twecching the sommes numbers and valewes of any goodes plate jewelles vestmentes belles or ornaementes of any churches chapelles aud suche leke and lekewyse the said comysshioners shall send to the busshop of every dyocessee wherin the said countie ys situate or unto ther channccellor comyssaries or other ecclesiastycall officers in whos handes or custodye the leke of the forsaid invytories and regestours have combe and of them and every of them they shall receive and take the said bokes regesters and invytories. And that done the said comysshioners shall compayer boyth the same invytories that ys to say as well suche as they shall receive of the Custos Rotulorum or hys deputie or the clarke of the peaxe as of the bysshoppe or there under officers and accordyng to the best rechest and grettyst invitorie the sayed comysshioners shall procyde to make ther survey and inquirye. And by the same make the searches of the defaultes and wantes that shalbe founde. And generally the same comysshioners shall not only by the viewe of the said regesters and invytories but also by any other meanes they can better devyse procyde to the due sarche and inquisition of the wantes and defaultes of any parte of the said goodes plate jewles vestmentes belles or ornaementes.

Item for the more spedy obtaynyng of the said regesters and invytories the said comysshioners shall receive speciall letters of the commaundement of our privie counsell for the delyverie therof whiche letters the said comysshioners shall delyver as they see occasion.

Item the said comysshioners shall appon their viewe and survey taken cause due invytories to be made by bylles or bokes indented of almaner of goodes plate jewles belles and ornamentes as yet be remaynyng or any wyse ffourthcommynge and belongyn to any churches chapelles fraternyties or gyldes and thone parte of the same inventories to send and retorne to our privye counsell and the other to delyver to them in whos handes the said goodes plate jewles belles and ornamentes shall remayne to be kepte and preserved. And they shall also give good charge and order that the same goodes and every parte therof be at altymes ffourthcommynge to be aunswered, levyng never the leasse in everye parishe church or chapell of comen resorte one to or more chalyces or cuppys accordyng to the multitude of the people in every suche church and chapell and also suche other ornamentes as by their dyscression may seme requysette for the devyne service in every suche place for the tyme.

And by cause we be informed that in many places grete quantities of the said plate jewles belles and ornamentes be imbeseled by certyn private men contrarye to oure expresse comaundementes in that behalffe the said comysioners shall substancyously and justly enquire and attayne the knowlege thereof by whos faulte the same ys and hath ben and in whos handes any parte of the same ys come and in that poynte the said comysioners shall have good regarde that they attayne the certayne names and dwellinges places of every person or parties that hath sold alienated imbesiled taken or caryed away. And of suche also as have consiled advised and comaunded any parte of the said goodes plate jewles belles vestments and ornamentes to be taken away or otherwyse imbesiled. And these thynges they shall as certainly and duly as they can cause to be sarched and understoude.

Apon a ffull sarche and inquirye whereof the said comysioners iiij^{or} or iij. of them shall cause to be called before them all suche persons by whome any of the said goodes plate jewles belles ornamentes or any other the premysses have been alienated imbesiled or taken away or by whos meanes or procurement the same or any parte therof hath ben attempted or to whos handes or use any of the same or any profit ffor the same hath growen and by suche goode meanes as to their dyscression shall seme best cause them to bryng into their [sic] said comysioners handes to our use the said plate jewles belles and other the premysses so alienated or the true and juste valewe therof sertifyng unto oure privie counsell the names of all suche as refuse to stond to or obbey their order twecchyng the redyleverye and restytucion of the same or the juste valor therof to thentente that as cause and reason shall requyre every man may aunswere to hys doynge in thys behalf.

Efyually oure pleasure ys that the said comysioners in all their doynge shall use suche sober and dyscrete maner of prossidyng as theffecte of thys comysion may go fforward with as myche quyete and as lytell occasion of troble or dysquyte of the multytude as maybe usyng to that ende suche wyse perswadyng in all places of their sessions as in respecte of the place and dysposicion of the people maye seme to their wysdome more expedyent, gevyng also good and substanciall order for the staye of thenordynat and gredye covytuossnese of suche dysordered people as [sic] have or shall goo aboute the allenatyng of any of the premysses so as accordyng to reason and order suche as have or shall contemptuously offende in thys behalffe may receve reformation as for the qualytye of their doyngs shalbe requysette.

The salutary caution in the last article is not without its significance. It would seem that the intended alterations in the method of conducting the services of the Church, were not popular with the churchmen of the time, and therefore the Commissioners were enjoined to be careful not to wound or arouse the susceptibilities of the people while the work of appropriation was being carried on.
